

Ready To Learn.

The Learning Triangle - October 2009 Fire Safety

The Learning Triangle is a way of teaching young children through a combination of TV that teaches + storybooks + activities - all related to one theme or skill. READ, DO, VIEW.

READ - "My Fire Engine" by Michael Rex. A young boy fantasizes about being a fire fighter. He gets to drive the Pumper Engine, put out the fire, and save the day. This is a fact filled role- playing adventure. Good for kids who like trucks, great for kids who like fire trucks! Illustrations blaze with intense greens, blues, and fire colors. The combination of specific detail, dramatic plot line, and eye-catching visuals will rivet young fire truck enthusiasts.

VIEW - Arthur's All Fired Up. What exactly is a fire drill anyway? When Ms. Morgan announces they'll be having one during preschool, D.W. wants no part of a fire drill -- it sounds way too scary. Can she manage to stay home from school every day until the danger passes? Watch Arthur on WJCT weekdays at 7 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. and Sundays at 8 a.m.

DO - Take your kids to the local fire station this month for a tour. This is an excellent way to share PACT (Parent And Child Together) time with your child(ren). Be sure to call ahead to schedule an appointment; don't just show up.

See how easy it is to use the Learning Triangle?
Try it yourself and watch your child learn!
