

Kirsten Freitag Murray is the Executive Director of Hope Street, Inc., a trauma-informed care training agency grounded in Trust Based Relational Interventions® (TBRI®). In this role she also serves as the Servant Leader of Hope & Healing JAX, bringing together those already working in Jacksonville to address Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs)

and trauma to promote healing and build resilience. Networking to STRENGTHEN and GROW existing EFFORTS.

Ms. Freitag Murray's expertise and experience position her well to realize the mission of Hope Street through her vision to equip all who touch the lives of children with what they need, so they can in turn give children what they need thereby creating an integrated ecosystem that will improve the everyday lives of children and families